

A large, semi-transparent silhouette of a cheerleader in the center of the page, holding pom-poms and a baton. The background is a bright, hazy outdoor scene with trees and a sunburst effect.

PERFORMANCE
TRAINING GEAR

PERFORMANCE-LAB APPROVED GEAR, READY TO SHIP

True Performance isn't about one moment, one workout, one race, or one test.

True Performance is pushing each day to be better.

True Performance is doing 1,000 little things right each day and every time.

True Performance is showing up each day and giving everything you've got.

For over 50 years, Badger Sport has defined True Performance gear.

At the Performance Lab, we test every fabric dye lot, every time.

We permanently embed wicking into garment fibers, to pull sweat away and keep the wearer cool.

We use silver ion antimicrobial technology to prevent odor-causing bacteria.

We pioneered the B-Coloright™ process so every garment is the right color, every time and over time.

True Performance isn't the easy way, but we believe it's the right way.

We're tough graders, and only when it passes our tests is it worthy of yours.
